

>> Are you tired of run-away legal costs?

Set legal cost limits in advance. Gain daily control over legal expenses – with the no-surprise litigation process, Chaitons Contract Enforcement System.

Chaitons Contract Enforcement System puts a short leash on legal fees!

Discover how you can:

- >> Avoid unexpected legal bills
- >> Manage your legal costs in real-time
- >> Eliminate unnecessary communications and control costs
- >> Generate up-to-date status reports

Avoid unexpected legal fees

Chaitons Contract Enforcement System, a new online litigation and information management system, lets you communicate electronically – and more directly – with your lawyers. No more telephone tag, which helps you manage, and reduce, your legal costs.

That's what FinanciaLinx Corporation and Bodkin Leasing Corporation, two prominent leasing companies, liked when they selected Chaitons Contract Enforcement System to manage their legal files.

>> Harness the power of a Web-based enforcement system

- >> Use integrated messaging to send and receive vital communications
- >> View and examine all sent and received documents and correspondence pertaining to your files
- >> Set cost limits in advance, and be notified when they are reached
- >> Contain costs with agreements in advance on procedures that may be taken without further authorization
- >> Do it all in real time – at the click of a button – in a secure, encrypted, confidential online environment

"It may be unusual to hear a lawyer say this: Chaitons Contract Enforcement System helps you manage and reduce your legal costs! In a secure, online environment, it also lets you generate status reports, without calling your lawyer – saving you time and eliminating corresponding legal fees."

Note:
 When files are sent, the following information is automatically uploaded from your system:

- Electronic copy of the lease
- Customer, Guarantor/Co-lessee information
- Account History
- Date of Default
- Amount of Arrears
- Account Payout Statement

This info will populate in the form of virtual folders. Our system is secured with 128-bit SSL encryption, and will satisfy your most stringent security requirements.

- >> Gathering and sending information to your lawyers
- >> Responding to your lawyer's requests for case facts or requesting updates from your lawyers
- >> Responding to lawyers' requests for account histories, payouts and updates

Our research indicates that up to 25% of your total legal bill for contract enforcement engagements is wasted on routine communications – communications that Chaitons Contract Enforcement System now eliminates.

>> You want that report when?

With Chaitons Contract Enforcement System, your collections manager can manage and report on more files because the system automatically generates standard and customized reports. All at the click of a button – as detailed as you want, anytime you want.

And you get total transparency. You can view and verify real-time accounting records and documentation and check on the progress of your case at anytime, in accordance with predefined criteria that you establish. So you know if your file is collecting dust or is receiving the attention it deserves.
